

Top Food Drives for October 2009

1 Francis Howell Middle School

Francis Howell Middle School hosted their very first (of many to come) food drive. Through the competition of each grade level they raised a total of 8,797 pounds of food within 4 weeks! Their donations enabled the Foodbank to provide 7,038 meals to our area's neediest families and individuals. Outstanding job!!

2 Farm Aid

Farm Aid rocked the metro area with outstanding performances from their star lineup. Through many advertisement avenues, Farm Aid raised awareness for the need of food and asked their concertgoers to bring non-perishable donations to the venue. A little more than 20,000 individuals attended the concert and donated a total of 4,566 pounds of food, which provided 3,653 meals!! Way to rock the metro area!

3 ThyssenKrupp Industrial Services

The staff at ThyssenKrupp Industrial Services delivered phenomenal results for their first ever food drive. Through offering fun incentives for the biggest givers, they collected a total of 2,000 pounds of food which provided 1,600 meals! Great team work!

4 Furniture Brands

Furniture Brands had a great time racing to fill their barrels in just only one week! Through their friendly competitive spirits they collected a total of 1,523, which in turn provided 1,219 meals out to our hungry families! Fabulous efforts!

5 Marquette High School

The students at Marquette High School hosted their annual food drive in conjunction with their football game. Offering either a cash admission fee or a canned food donation the dedicated students raised 893 pounds of food. With their donation we provided a total of 714 meals!

What a win-win situation!
